Summary of Itinerary

Day One: Our Ryanair flight departs Dublin at 5pm. Arrival in Naples airport. Transfer to hotel. Dinner and overnight.

Day Two: Day in Sorrento including the Cathedral, Villa Comunale with great views of Vesuvius, the Franciscan Friary and ancient cloister. Free afternoon for shopping. Sorrento is famous for its ceramics, inlaid wood and leather products.

Day Three: Boat trip from Sorrento along the Amalfi Coast to the beautiful town of Positano. The Amalfi Coast is UNESCO listed because of its spectacular beauty and unique heritage. The town of Positano is built on a cliff-side with pebble beachfront and steep, narrow streets lined with boutiques and cafes. There will be some free time for shopping before returning to the hotel.

Day Four: Optional excursion to the Isle of Capri (cost depends on numbers). The island is renowned for its beautiful villages (Capri and Anacapri), spectacular coastline and the unique blue-emerald colours of its waters.

Day Five: Trip to the ancient city of Pompeii, which was once a thriving and sophisticated Roman city. With the disastrous eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D., the city was buried under meters of ashes and pumice. Pompeii is now an archaeological site that provides an amazing glimpse into the daily life of an average Roman town over two thousand years ago.

Day Six: We will take the coach along the Amalfi Coast, considered the most spectacular coastal drive in the world. We will stop off for lunch at the beautiful town of Amalfi, famous for its ancient cathedral (dedicated to St. Andrew and containing Apostle's tomb). Continue along the coast to Vietri and return to Sorrento along an inland route.

Day Seven: Transfer to Naples airport for our flight. Check-in at 1pm. Arrival in Dublin at 5.55pm.
